DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 421, s. 2016

TO : All PSDSs
Principals/School Heads and Teachers (Elementary and Secondary)

FROM :
NATIVIDAD P. BAYUBAY, CESO VI
Officer-In-Charge
Office of the Schools Division Superintendent

SUBJECT : H.O.M.E READING PROJECT

DATE : November 4, 2016

1. This is to inform the field of this year's H.O.M.E. Reading Project to highlight the celebration of the National Reading Month and in support to the two (2) reading programs in English (Elementary - ilove2read and Secondary - CARE & SHARE). This is in a form of a competition open to all the bonafide students of the randomly selected 45 main high schools (one contestant per school) and 35 contestants to represent each of the 35 districts, preferably coming from the big elementary or central school. The competition will be held on November 28, 2016 at Mibang Hotel, Dipolog City.
2. The objective of this competition is to help enhance the critical and analytical thinking of deserving ~~yet~~ underprivileged learners in the selected elementary and secondary schools of the entire division.
3. The participants to this are the grade 9 students of the identified 45 main high schools (refer to enclosed list of schools) as well as the grade 6 pupils of the school representing each of the 35 districts. Each contestant is entitled to only one (1) coach. Therefore, there is a total of 80 contestants and 80 coaches.
4. Upon claiming copy of the memorandum from the records section, the books that shall be read by contestant of the identified schools are also ready for pick up at the office of the EPS in English.
5. On November 28, 2016, the contestant preferably grade six (for elementary) and grade nine (for secondary) of the participating schools wanting to join the H.O.M.E. reading project shall be gathered at Mibang Hotel bringing with them the books for which they shall prepare their report. Each contestant will be given a prepared set of H.O.M.E. Reading Project questionnaires, which they shall answer in sheets of paper to be provided. The contestants shall be given ample time to prepare their respective book report of his/her actual grade level. Each contestant is directed to bring a copy of his/her Form 137 as proof of his/her actual grade level. No Form 137 NO CONTEST.
6. All the winners and coaches will receive certificates of recognition and cash incentives. Following are the prizes to be received by the FIRST TO FIFTH Placers for both the contestants and coaches (Elementary and Secondary) as well as 5 consolation prizes.

Inclosure to Division Memorandum No. 421, s. 2016

Additional information:

1. If possible all districts must conduct district level elimination so as to give equal chances to all the contestants and coaches, considering the number of schools in each district.
2. For the secondary level, an elimination must also be done in order to select the BEST contestant, considering the number of sections in each year level and to give equal chances to all the coaches and contestants.
3. All contestants and coaches (Elementary and Secondary) must be in their prescribed uniform during the contest.
4. Each district must get a copy of the book for the contestant to read from Dr. Fe. G. Jebone, EPS (English-09197911415).
5. As of the moment, you may let your contestants read books in preparation for the contest and in celebration of the National Reading Month Celebration – which is this month...November.
6. During the contest, on November 28, 2016, all the contestants must return the books to Dr. Fe G. Jebone. NO books to return NO contest.
7. Encourage other learners (Elementary and Secondary) to read books everyday.
8. All the reading teachers must initiate activities to highlight the National Reading Month Celebration and submit report to the division office (attention. EPS-English)
(note: The remaining secondary schools will be given the chance to participate next year)
