TWO LITTLE KITTENS

Author Unknown

Arranged fro verse choir

by Genoveva Melendez Ablanque

Two little kittens one stormy night,
Began to quarrel and to fight;

Group 1

One had a mouse, and the other had none
And that's the way the quarrel was begun.

Group 2

"I'll have that mouse,"

Solo 1

said the bigger cat.

All

"You'll have that mouse?
We'll see about that!"

Solo 2

"I will have that mouse,"

Solo 3

said the eldest son.

All

"You shan't have that mouse,"

Solo 4

said the little one.

All

I told you before t'was a stormy night
When these two little kittens began to fight;

Group 1

The old woman seized her sweeping broom
And swept the two kittens right out of the room.

Group 2

The ground was covered with frost and snow,
And the two little kittens had no where to go;

Group 1

So they laid themselves down on the mat
by the door,

Group 2

While the old woman finished sweeping the floor.

Then they crept in, as quiet as mice

Group 1

All wet with snow and cold with ice;

Group 2

For they found it was better that stormy night,
To lie down and sleep than to quarrel and fight.
